ESTABLISHED 1953

Dear Customers,

As you would all be aware, Europe has been doing it tough. Italy is in economic crisis and many of our suppliers are facing higher costs and tough business conditions. However, despite these pressures, the family companies that make our Christmas range will not be compromising with the quality of ingredients.

Each of them have assured me they will continue to use the highest quality butter, dried fruits, natural yeasts and chocolate that have earned their brands global recognition for quality and authenticity. While many common Italian brands have chosen to reduce costs by turning to industrial production, our suppliers remain committed to their traditional artisanal methods.

Most of the wonderful products on the following pages are made by fourth and fifth generations of bakers and confectioners. They are dedicated artisans who understand quality, the value of reputation and who will always have the utmost respect for their loyal customers here in Australia.

Since first importing panettone in 1954, the L. Di Santo/ Enoteca Sileno Christmas Selection has set the standard for Italian Christmas Specialty products in Australia.

I am proud to say that 2013 will be no exception.

John Portelli

Enoteca Sileno's Director

WHAT MAKES ENOTECA SILENO'S CHRISTMAS SELECTION SPECIAL?

NO FREEZING

The Panettone & Pandoro in this catalogue will be baked for you once your indent order has been placed and shipped to you fresh.

NO MARGARINE

The Panettone & Pandoro are made using premium, authentic ingredients such as Belgian butter & Sicilian candied fruits and nuts for superior flavour and aroma.

NATURALLY LEAVENED

Baked products are naturally leavened in the cooler months using mother yeasts that have been passed down for generations, not industrial yeasts.

BEAUTIFUL PRESENTATION

Traditionally hand-wrapped Panettone, Pandoro, Torrone and Panforte make beautiful, authentically Italian Christmas gifts.

REFRIGERATED CONTAINERS

The trip from Italy to Australia across the equator can see temperatures inside shipping containers reaching over 50°C which will severely compromise the quality and flavour of any food product. Enoteca Sileno only uses refrigerated containers for all our Christmas Specialty lines and all transport within Australia is strictly climate controlled.

CLIMATE CONTROLLED WAREHOUSING

Regardless of how hot the Australian summer is, we guarantee every product will reach you in superb condition.

* Using the order sheets provided separately, simply indicate the total units required (not cartons) in the appropriate column. The unit pack size is indicated clearly on the order form.

 Please note that orders for certain specialty items cannot be guaranteed and confirmation of all items ordered is dependent on supplier availability at the time of order.

 Due to Australian regulations, some items may require alternative decorations. Please note images may differ from actual presentation of product and should be used as a general guide only.

CONOMATA OFFELLERIA
PERBELLINI
1900 in Bovolon

Battista Perbellini and his two brothers are fifth generation pastry cooks. They make their renowned Panettone and Pandoro at their pasticceria on the outskirts of Verona in the northern Italian region of Veneto. The Perbellini Panettone and Pandoro are made in October as the cooler weather settles in. The dough is hand worked and then allowed to naturally leaven with 50-year-old mother yeast. After baking they are allowed to cool and then hand wrapped by the Perbellini Family. This ensures all the products are of the best quality and utmost freshness.

The Pandoro, or “golden bread”, is the classic cake symbol of Verona and contains no candied fruits or sultanas whatsoever. Enclosed with the Pandoro is a sachet of delicate vanilla powdered sugar which is sprinkled over the top of the cake like snow and allowed to sit for about 10 minutes so that it slowly dissolves and the aroma permeates gently through the moist Pandoro.

Perbellini Panettone is naturally leavened and the addition of soaked sultanas, candied citron and Mediterranean orange peel produces a wonderfully zesty fragrant benchmark Panettone. Perbellini uses butter and eggs, not margarines and therefore wedges of the Panettone can be rewrapped in foil and placed into a hot oven with the flame switched off for about 5 minutes so that the ingredients moisten and emit a tempting aroma.

NOTES

Rustichella d’Abruzzo is found deep in the green Vestine hills, in the central Italian province of Pescara. Gaetano Sergiacomo established the business in 1924 to conserve traditional and regional methods of pasta production. Three generations later, Rustichella is still a family business, run by Gaetano’s grandson, Gianluigi Peduzzi; a close friend of Enoteca Sileno and a regular visitor to Australia.

Gianluigi is absolutely committed to traditional production techniques of all the products that bear the Rustichella d’Abruzzo name and this consistently ensures a quality artisan product. Rustichella pays meticulous attention to every detail of production which of course starts with the selection of excellent raw ingredients.

NOTES

Gilber

In 1965 a small workshop for pastry making was born in Turin where the ability and enthusiasm of young master pastry-cooks created a continuously expanding production of panettoni (Christmas cakes) colombe, (Easter fruit cakes) and amaretti (almond biscuits). Many years have passed since then and the small workshop has now grown into a flourishing business.

Still a family concern, Gilber develops its production from traditional hand-made lines, using carefully selected ingredients for delicious top quality products. The “Piemontese” panettone is the pride of the Gilber production: with its characteristic hazelnut and almond icing. Naturally leavened and rich with ingredients, it is the fruit of delicate workmanship. This natural rising process uses cultured yeast exclusively, with no added chemical yeast, and requires a full 48 hours to guarantee the sponginess, softness, and fragrance that characterise all Gilber baked products.

NOTES

The story of the Fiasconaro Brothers began three generations ago, when first the grandfather and then father managed a small artisan “pasticceria“ in the village of Castelbuono, in the heart of the Madonie area. The three young brothers, Fausto, Martino and Nicola, began to learn the trade, helping their father in their spare time.

Today the Fiasconaro Brothers own the company that bears their name: Fausto manages marketing, Martino runs administration and Nicola is the confectioner. Their love of natural flavours and an unshakeable faith in tradition have prevented them from falling for the enticements of large scale industrial production.

The Fiasconaro brothers source premium ingredients for their exquisite range. They use the highly-prized and locally-grown almonds from Avola and pistachio nuts from Bronte. All candied fruits are also sourced from trusted Sicilian suppliers.

In 1930 the three Flamigni brothers opened their first pasticceria in the main square of Forlì, in the centre of Emilia-Romagna. Their incredible Torrone cake brought them immediate fame. This is the same recipe used today.

For over eighty years, Flamigni has produced Italian specialties according to traditional methods. From the selection of authentic, premium ingredients, to exquisite hand wrapping, Flamigni maintains meticulous control over the entire production process.

The company now operates two factories: the Forlì plant continues to make the traditional Torrone, and the new Rodello plant in Cuneo, Piedmont, is geared toward the production of panettone and other baked specialties.

BEPI TOSOLINI
MASTRO DISTILLATORE IN UDINE

This small artisan baker and pastry shop is based in Florence and specializes in the medieval Tuscan specialty panforte. Forno di Enzo is owned by the same family who produce Enoteca Sileno's famous Ghiott almond cantuccini biscuits.

The Le Baladin range of beers, ales and soft drinks draw on the greatest brewing traditions of Europe. This panettone is made with dried grapes that have been soaked with the award winning double-malt maderized dessert beer Xyauyu.

The Bepi Tosolini Distillery in Friuli, founded in 1944, is a pioneer of authentic grappe. The "Most" is the name of their premium acquavite range distilled from a blend of grapes. Its distinct character and aroma permeates this traditional panettone in which the sultanas and raisins have been soaked in the refined grappa distillate.
